Dear Parents,

This term, we will be teaching the Sex Education part of our Relationships, Sex and Health Education curriculum. We will be using the Christopher Winter Sex and Relationships project materials to deliver this teaching. This was due to be taught in Summer 2020, therefore, below are the learning outcomes for this unit of teaching in Year Three:

- Know some differences and similarities between males and females.
- Name male and female body parts.
- Identify different types of touch that people like and do not like.
- Understand personal space.
- Talk about ways of dealing with unwanted touch.
- Understand that all families are different and have different family members.
- Identify who to go to for help and support.

Here are some websites that provide support for parents talking about Sex Education at home:

Yours sincerely,
